in studio lab

Get inspired by the Children's Museum's portrait collection, the history of portrait art in the original Carnegie Library of Allegheny (now MuseumLab) and the wealth of creative artists from our community, past and present.

Featuring:

Andy Warhol's Myths Series

Pittsburgh Portrait Gallery, a collection of 25 artworks by artists currently working in the Pittsburgh region

Artists include Lisa Ash, Jaime Bird, Dan Burfield, Ashley Cecil, Racheal Diehl, Susan E. Drennen, Kim Freithaler, Peggi Habets, Sarah Jacobs, Sandy Kessler Kaminski, Deborah Lieberman, Julie Lee, Clare Mears, Gabriela Ortiz, Selva Priya, K. Rose Quayle, Jocelyn Randolph, Rell Rushin, Sasha Schwartz with Alexander Schwartz, Ray Sharkins, Shori Sims, and Julianna Zito.

Digital Rolodex, an interactive collection of photographs by Chancellor Humphrey, founder of Keep Pittsburgh Dope Watch for Chancellor Humphrey as an artist-in-residence later this summer*

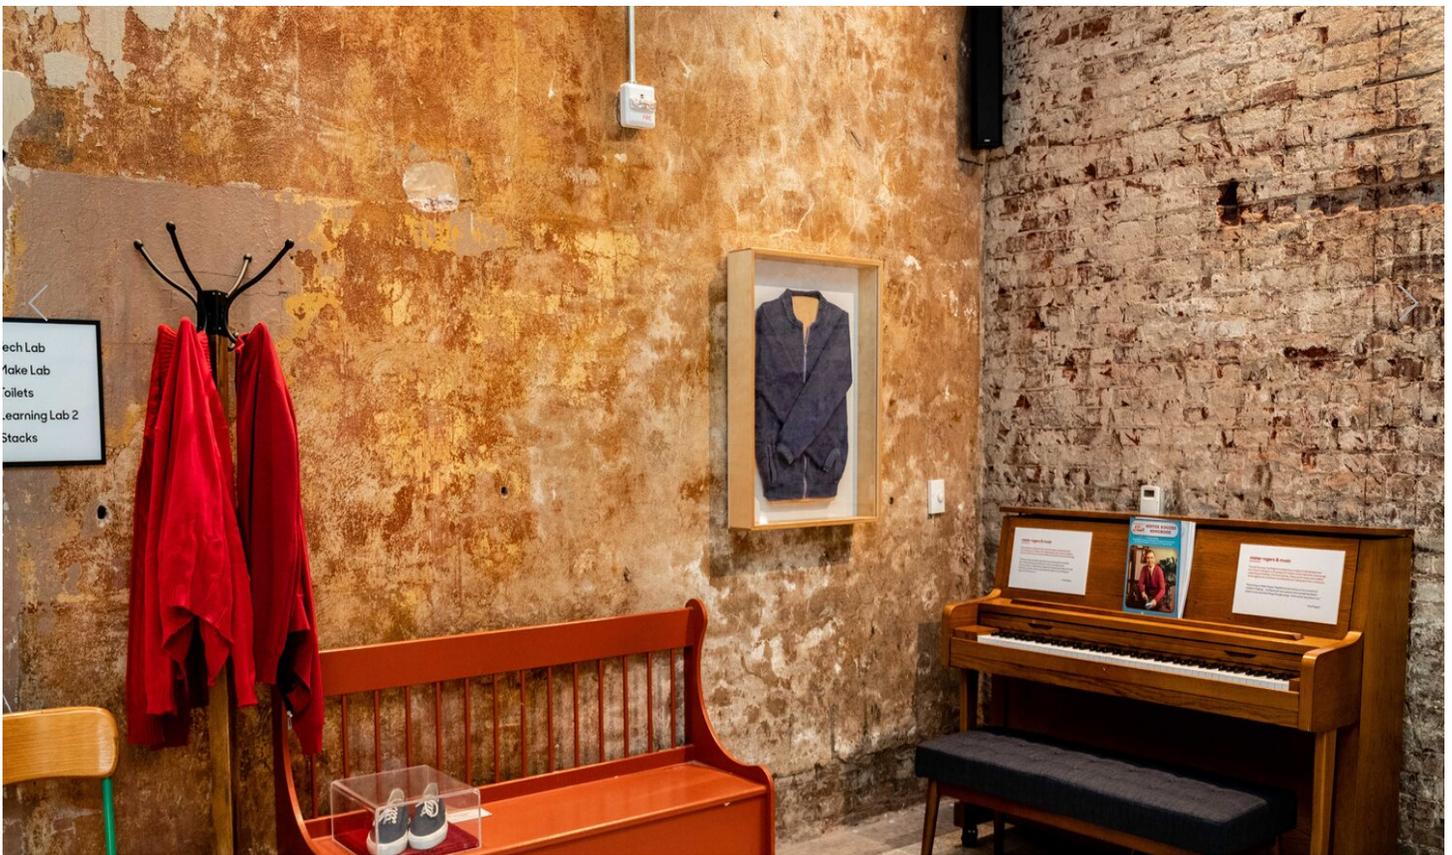

Experimental Portraits Project by Annie Heisey

Interactive experiences highlighting techniques and tools used by artists to create portraits, including:

- SELF-PORTRAIT PAVILION - 4 different areas to snap your portrait against different backdrops, including
- SKETCHY PORTRAITS, where you can digitally see yourself as a work of art
- SPLIT FACE MIRROR - See your face mixed with some facial features of another person to look at yourself in a new way
- FIND THE MISSING PORTRAITS ESCAPE ROOM CHALLENGE - Find a collection of 'misplaced' portraits by solving puzzles and finding clues hidden in the exhibit gallery. (This is not a physical escape room.)
- SILHOUETTES - Take turns tracing a friend's profile or having your silhouette drawn to note the similarities and differences. Accessible to all ages and abilities.
- PORTRAIT DRAWING LIGHT TABLE, a multi-purpose drawing table to practice portrait drawing technique
