Top nature and wildlife photographer and travel book writer gets recognized at prestigious events.

On top of her previous achievements, award-winning photographer and book author Nicki Geigert received more recognition this year from the Pacific Book Review 2022 and Book Excellence Awards 2022. Three of her professionally reviewed books include A Girl's Greek Odyssey, Family Trip to Magical Madagascar and Beyond, and Who's Yawning Now?

Grand Prize Awards

Nicki was awarded two Grand Prizes from the Pacific Book Review 2022: the Best Travel Award for A Girl's Greek Odyssey and the Best Young Adult Award for the same book. She is also a finalist for two other books: Family Trip to Magical Madagascar and Beyond (for the Best Travel Award) and Who's Yawning Now? (for the Children Non-Fiction Award). This recognition validates Nicki's expertise and her passion for nature and wildlife photography and writing coffee table travel books.

A Girl's Greek Odyssey

Accompanied with panoramic photos of landscapes and personal travel accounts, Nicki vividly recorded the experience of Savannah in Greece and Crete in her book. "A Girl's Greek Odyssey is something any travel buff, history enthusiast, or even a memoir lover would enjoy," according to literary reviewer Jennifer Bailey. It's a blend of reminiscing the past, capturing the present, and yearning for the future. Undoubtedly, the manuscript deserves dual prizes: the Best Travel and Best Young Adult awards.

Family Trip to Magical Madagascar and Beyond

Family Trip to Magical Madagascar and Beyond maintains the tone of an experienced and proficient photographer, writer, and traveler. Ella Vincent has noted in the Pacific Book Review that the book will be illuminating to many readers and show Madagascar is more than just a cartoon. Putting the family in the background, Nicki brings the people, landscapes, plants, and animals of enchanted Madagascar into life in a fascinating and photographic manner. It is something you can see, feel, and visualize without literally going into the place.

Best Book for Photography and Travel

Two years ago, Nicki's Family Trip to Magical Madagascar and Beyond also received the Best Book for Photography, and A Girl's Greek Odyssey was awarded the Best Book for Travel Adventure. The two recognition is vested to her by the Pinnacle Book Achievement Award 2020. The awarding body of Pinnacle is managed by the National Association of Book Entrepreneurs, which has been honoring the finest books from various categories for over three decades.

Who's Yawning Now?

In "Who's Yawning Now?", Nicki documents stunning and attractive animals caught yawning. She worked on the project for about 30 years, retelling stories of the animals in an entertaining and alluring manner. As a finalist for the Children Non-Fiction from the Book Excellence Awards 2022, Nicki's book proves to be worth flipping through if you want to discover nature's wonder through the lens of an authentic nature lover. Some of the featured lovely creatures are said to come near to extinction. Thus, it would be an opportunity for you to be part of advocating to preserve their homes and save their kind. The book, by the way, is written for varied types of audiences, from children to adults.

Award-Winning Books at ALA Annual

The award-winning books are available at Amazon, Barnes & Nobles, ReadersMagnet, and other notable bookstores. We are honored to have displayed the same books at the ALA Annual in Washington DC, last June 24 to 27, 2022, with the author gracing the event with a book signing with her fans. Feel free to visit our Facebook page to check out the photos capturing some memorable moments at the 2022 ALA Conference and Exhibition.
